THE LONG ISLAND MURDER.

The afternoon papers printed on Saturday an account of a murder committed on FOOT. Long Island. The victim was reported to be a beautiful Hungarian girl, whose remains were so mutilated as to be unrecognizable. The account came from the Union Press Exchange, which furnishes the common thing now. I know one esterer Long Island news to most of the New York whose average Sunday orders for papers. THE EVENING WORLD used the story in its earlier editions, but telegraphed to a special correspondent, who visited the scene and turned in the true facts, which hostesscalls his attention to a line around the were printed in the EVENING WORLD Sporting Extra. The skin-glove fight to a finish for $250 a side the skin-glove fault to a mink for skin a side, between Fred Garaiz and Fred Saratoga, was run off so quietly that only a few of the most intimate friends of the backers of the men succeeded in getting there. It was fought last Monday night, just one week ago, and it old not leak out until yesterday. It only lasted one minute and forty-five seconds and Gratz proved the victor.

Leading amateurs take big risks when they spor with professionals in public for money under assumed names.

Jack Leonard and Swipes the Newsboy are both in one condition at present. They have trained hard and earnestly for their finish fignt, which will take place within ten days and possibly nefore the close of the present week. They will doubtless make a good hard fight, as they are both game men and have been there before.
